

Rob Couture (Drums) is a percussionist/drummer who performs with the Montreal alt folk band The Echo Hunters, and has now firmly solidified his place with the Durham County Poets.

Kevin Harvey (Singer/Songwriter) was nominated for the following awards: The MAPLE BLUES AWARDS (Best songwriter) 2021; CFMA Award (Male vocalist of the year, traditional singer) 2021; MAPLE BLUES AWARDS (Male vocalist of the year) 2022. Kevin was paralyzed after an accident in 1981 yet continues to inspire people through music and song.

Kaven Jalbert (Tenor & Baritone sax) was born into a musical family, lovers of Rock n Roll, Country, and Blues. Music allowed him to travel all around the world on Cruise Ships. You get to hear Kaven's impressive talent and tremendous skills when you experience him live. He will capture your attention note after note. He was nominated for Horn Player of the Year at the 2020 Maple Blues Awards.

Mark Leclerc (Tenor saxophone) Inspired by the blues shouters and hard bop saxophonists of the 50's, winner of the 2020 Maple Blues Award for Horn Player of the Year Mark LeClerc blends the sounds of Eddie "Cleanhead" Vinson, Stanley Turrentine, and King Curtis into his own unique style.

Rob MacDonald (Guitar) has been working as a professional guitarist in the Montreal area for more than 30 years. He has performed and recorded with a wide assortment of bands covering many styles of music ranging from Rock, Blues, Country, Folk, and Jazz. He is a consummate musician and is in high demand for his incredible guitar work and has performed at every major music festival across Canada, the US, and Europe.

Carl Ruff (Bass) is a musician's musician! Carl has performed with many blues artists in Montreal at the famous Montreal Jazz Festival over 20 times since its inception with legendary guitarist, Jimmy James. Carl performs and records as well with the alt folk band The Echo Hunters. He is now concentrating his writing and arranging skills with the Durham County Poets.